BALTIMORE. Md., Nov. 6.—No more perfect day, has ever dawned in Maryland than that upon which the result of the campaign in this State is to be decided by the voters.

The poils in Baltimore opened at 6 A. M. and a heavy vote resulted in most of the 294 precincts. It being estimated that one-fourth of the ballots in the dity had been cast by so clock.

A conservative estimate, based on the registration, indicates that 260,000 votes will be cast in the State and Bryan, the balance being scattered among the various milnor candidates.

Last year the Gubernatorial vote was 251,000, of which the Democrats got 128, old and the Republicans 118,000 in rounin numbers. Four years ago the vote for the Mekholey electors was 136,000, while that for Bryan was 104,000 out of a total of 249,000.
